The burial of your deceased loved ones with dignity and the ongoing care of their graves are very important to All Souls Catholic Church.

However, there are incidents when the grave decorations become damaged or missing. We are sorry that happens and want you to know that these incidents are not deliberate, nor do they show a lack of compassion for your deceased family members or friends.

We regret that we cannot guarantee to safeguard decorations from damage or disappearance and that we cannot accept the responsibility for their damage or loss.
